Keep Your Head in the Game with Jerry Paulsen

An interactive, hard-hitting, open and honest workshop or assembly for serious athletes of all ages and abilities. Emphasis is placed upon remaining drug and alcohol free and the consequences of the decisions they make every day.

Athletes are encouraged to look at the roles they play, to assume more active leadership roles in their school and community, and to set the right example in and out of the sports arena. They are encouraged to open up and share concerns, questions, problems and pressures they face daily related to their sport, alcohol, drugs, peer pressure, gangs, friends, and family.

Jerry shares experiences from his athletic background, which includes lettering in 3 sports, as well as his law enforcement career as a Narcotics/Homicide Detective and D.A.R.E. Officer. Everyone will be able to relate to regardless of the sport in which they participate.

This is ideal for pre-season meetings, team meetings, sports banquets, etc.- for any athletic organization or event!
